Help Make the Haitian Holidays Happier

Jeremiah Lowney, DDS, MPH
— Founder and President, HHF

As we settle into our own holiday season this year, it's hard not to think about our neighbors in Haiti for whom the Christmas season means yearning a little more than usual for many things that we may take for granted — and for which they have little prospect to enjoy: family gatherings with plenty of food and good cheer, exchanging gifts with our loved ones, and the hope for a better new year.

To those of you who in the past have supported the Haitian Health Foundation in serving the people of Haiti, I again send my thanks to each of you. I hope that we have adequately shared the great strides that our employees and volunteers have made over the past 12 months, and in years past.

HHF truly is a positive force for a people with so much need in their lives! At left is my wife, Virginia Lowney, with just a few of the tens of thousands of mothers and babies who have participated in our nutrition and vaccination programs in and around Jérémie, Haiti.

And for those for whom it's been a while since your last gift (and who may be in a position to give again), I hope that you consider our past successes and our promise for future hope and improvement to the lives of thousands of Haitians as you weigh your current giving plans.

I wish you and your family a warm and joyous holiday season.

Health.
It's more than medicine.

Sante.
Se plis ke swen.
